
Debora Fee

Debora Fee
10/8/1957-7/24/2017

Debora Fee, 59, passed away peacefully on July 24, 2017 at her home surrounded by family after a bravely fought battle with breast cancer. She was born October 8, 1957 in San Jose, California to Karen and William Granberg.

Deb is survived by her husband, John Fee, Children: Rebecca (Callow) Sorce, Tiffany (Fee) Dyson and Trevor Fee, her outlaws: Jason, Travis and Danielle, and eight grandchildren: JT, Kaycee, Alyssa, Ayden, Matthew, Maddison, Mason and Makayla. She is further survived by her brother Joe Granberg.

Deb truly lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures: spending time with her children and grandchildren, camping and fishing with her husband and her dog Buck, and laughing with her group of amazing girlfriends.

Deb had an uncanny ability to reach people in a deep way and make them feel loved... and then some.

She gave her time supporting the Auburn Fire Department and making blankets for patients at the infusion center.

There will not be a funeral service at this time, but a Celebration of Life will be scheduled in the future to raise a glass and honor an amazing Mother, Grandmother, wife and friend.

A special thanks goes out to all the nurses at the Auburn infusion center, the Auburn Faith Hospice and Sutter Cancer Center who dedicate their time and support to women battling breast cancer.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Auburn Fire Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 at P.O. Box 9212 Auburn, Ca 96604 and/or Sutter Auburn Faith Hospice.

Please sign the online guestbook at auburnjournal.com

Published in Auburn Journal on July 28, 2017
