

In Loving Memory of Arthur Carl Siebert

1926 - 2017

Services & Gatherings

Visitation:

Private Visitation
New Comer Cremations & Funerals
343 New Karner RD
Colonie, NY 12205
518-456-4442

Interment:

Gerald B.H. Solomon Saratoga National Cemetery
200 Duell Rd., Schuylerville, NY 12871

Arthur Siebert, 92, of Guilderland passed away on December 26, 2017. Arthur was the loving and devoted husband of Ann Siebert. They were married for 63 years.

During World War II, Art served for 3 years aboard the USS Kennebec. The Kennebec was one of the ships that participated in the capture of the German submarine U505 in June 1944. Following his return home, he went to work for the New York Central Railroad. After their closing, he became a Teamster out of Local 294. He began his 33-year truck driving career with Associated Transport, Inc. He loved to travel with his wife and was proud that they had visited every state in America. He also traveled to Germany numerous times to visit family and friends.

He is survived by a son, Arthur F. Siebert, his son's loving partner, Kathleen Van Twyver, and two daughters Donna Banas and Linda McInerney.

His eldest daughter, Susan Paul predeceased him.

Funeral services will be private at the discretion of the family. The interment will be in the Saratoga National Cemetery.

timesunion <https://www.timesunion.com/news/article/Guilderland-police-identify-man-killed-in-Dec-26-12470663.php>

Guilderland police identify man killed in Dec. 26 fire

Buy Photo

A mutual aid fire guts a residence at 490 Church Road on Tuesday, Dec 26, 2017, in Guilderland, N.Y. (Skip Dickstein/ Times Union)

Guilderland police confirmed Wednesday that the man who died in a fatal Church Road fire last week was Arthur C. Siebert, 91.

Firefighters were called to 490 Church Road just before 2 p.m. on Dec. 26. Siebert, the homeowner, was the only person home at the time and was trapped in the basement when the fire started. He was dead by the time firefighters were able to reach him.

An obituary indicates that 84-year-old Ann Siebert, "the loving and devoted wife of Arthur Carl Siebert" died in September. The death notice states they were married for 63 years and that the couple have visited every state in America.

More than a half-dozen fire companies responded to the scene. Firefighters arrived to find heavy flames and smoke pouring from the one-story ranch and were forced to fight the fire from the outside.