

Rich Armstrong – Shipmate Memories

I believe it was the summer of 1946 and very hot in the dry dock of Bremerton Navy yard the ship “manned the rail” for President Truman. He left without coming. There was a bunch of tight jawed sailors headed for the rain lockers a few still in dress canvas.

Rich Armstrong qm1 ret '65.